Mobile Responses turns mobile devices into a virtual clicker. Participants can respond to interactive questions with any web-enabled device including smartphones, tablets, laptops or desktops. ResponseWare allows participants to respond via the Internet through any web browser and immediately transfers selections to TurningPoint polling software. A variety of purchasing and licensing options are available to meet the needs of any polling environment. Android™ and Apple® apps are available for both phones and tablets. Engage and assess with familiar devices.

Browse All Articles