How do I use Respondus Lockdown Browser while on a Virtual Private Network?

Virtual Private Networks are not supported by Respondus Lockdown Browser. Some VPN or "virtual private network" utilities will also interfere with the webcam for Respondus Monitor-required exams. Students should temporarily disable any active VPN connections prior to starting LockDown Browser, or locate an alternate secure network instead of a public network.

Feedback: Correct or Suggest an Article | Request Help