Windows Defender is the default antivirus program for Windows 8 onward and is the recommended Windows antivirus software (UMBC owned computers that are joined to the Active Directory domain have the Enterprise version of Windows Defender). Macintosh computers also come with built in anti-malware systems called XProtect which is activated upon OS install.

Rate this Article

Feedback: Correct or Suggest an Article | Request Help