Microsoft Office 365

Office 365 includes a suite of Office applications and services that can either be accessed locally on a device or from the cloud via a web browser. For accessibility in Office 365 please click here.

Eligibility
Faculty, Staff, and Students

Version
Latest version of Office 365 Apps for enterprise

Platform
Windows, Macintosh, iOS, Android

System Requirements
System requirements can be found here.

Licensed Components
Cloud:
Newsfeed, OneDrive, Sites, Delve, Word Online, Excel Online, PowerPoint Online, OneNote Online, SharePoint, Teams, Sway, Forms, Class Notebook
Dynamics 365, Planner, Stream, StaffHub, Video, Staff Notebook, PowerApps, Yammer

Local:
Access (Windows only), Excel, Outlook, PowerPoint, Publisher (Windows only), Skype for Business, Word

Installation Instructions
- Browser-based Cloud Apps
- Windows Local Installation
- Mac Local Installation
- iOS Local Installation
- Android Local Installation

Tutorials
- How do I make content accessible in Microsoft Office?
- How do I present with real-time subtitles in PowerPoint?
- I'm having trouble logging in to my OneDrive/Microsoft Office 365 account. What can I do?
- Microsoft Office for the web training videos
- UMBC CIRC Software Workshops: Microsoft Excel for Data Analysis
- UMBC CIRC Software Workshops: Microsoft Access for Data Management

Feedback: Correct or Suggest an Article | Request Help

Office 365 is free and can be installed on up to 5 PC’s or Macs, 5 tablets, and 5 smartphones. Office 365 access will no longer be available upon leaving UMBC employment/enrollment. Sign in with your myUMBC credentials to access Office 365.

For KMS versions of Office Professional Plus (for faculty/staff UMBC-owned computers only), please follow the instructions here.